SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. On 17 September 1951, a senior Chinese official in Kwangtung made the following statements in a private conversation:

- a. The USSR has recently decided to increase her assistance to the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV), and to establish in the Southwest China border area a Soviet military supervisory organization of military and technical experts. This organization will direct Chinese aid to the DRV and intensify Chinese activities in Burma.
- b. In view of the extreme importance of these decisions, LIU Shao-chi wished to call a conference with CHEN Keng, CHANG Yun-i and YEH Chien-ying. The latter could not attend because his presence was required at the All-Kwangtung People's Representative Assembly, but on 2 September the other two flew to Peiping. They returned to their respective provinces on 9 September.
- c. On his return to Yunnan, CHEN was accompanied by So-po-lo-fu (), senior military adviser to the Central Military Affairs Commission, and WU Yao-niu, the DRV military representative in Yunnan for Vo Nguyen Giap.

2. On 14 September YANG Wen-ch'ing (), CHEN Keng's military representative in Canton, returned to Canton after a month's absence in Yunnan.
